

K-LOVE gives my wife comfort in today's harsh world. And I draw my strength from her, So the station gives us both a brighter outlook on the future. My wife and I would both be disappointed if K-LOVE were replaced. There are local Christian stations, but my wife prefers K-LOVE. K-LOVE helps people feel good about themselves and tries to pass the message that we all are on the same planet and need to get along without drugs, violence, greed, or corruption.
